

City of Elroy
Police Commission Meeting
September 3rd 2015

Commission President Paulsen called the meeting to order at 5:00p.m.

Present; Madden, Bashirian, Paulsen, Sartori and Pfof. Chief Tony Green was also present.

Public Comment; none

Approval of past notes; March 31st and June 3rd. Motion to except minutes was made by Sartori and a second by Basharian. Motion was passed.

Discussion on 2015 Budget; There will be a 2% raise for the officers. It is not clear as of yet on Health Insurance as the City Council has to decide on this yet. As of now the Police Department is under Budget for the year.

Police Communication and report on local crimes and issues; Click it or Ticket grant did not come this year. However Officer Thompson went to the Fair, so for going he won a body cam. September is the month that the officers will be qualifying for shooting. Firestone has a municipal program that Chief Green found that allows us to purchase tires at a lower rate of $104.00 per tire. Chief Green is working with the school on the ALICE program, (alert, lockdown, inform, counter act)

Commission Communication; It was asked that we remind our officers that they too need to follow city ordinances.

Status of Officers; As of now all Officers are back to work. We have an average of 2 officers on duty a day.
