Summer Reading Programs

“Running” June 6 – July 8th

All programs are run at the Elroy Library and all persons are welcome to participate. Sign up through the school or library. Participant will make a personal goal sheet, update it on-site, and earn tokens to potentially “win” end of program prizes.

Monday “MOVE”Ys: Every Monday, we will show two films in the Brunner Room. The 1:00 p.m. film is rated PG while the 4:00 p.m. film will be PG13. We hope to show new releases and will post a list on our website and Facebook page in May.

Tuesday “Take it Outside”: We will be doing an outdoor activity for Primary children (K – 5) from 1:00 until 2:00 that is active, skill building, and literature based. Teen Tuesday will also return with refreshments, laughter, and book challenges at 3:00 p.m.

Wednesday “Wiggle Workout”: Geared for preschoolers, a combined story hour, wiggle time, and interactive reading starting at 10:15 and running until 11:00 a.m. Do not worry about coming in late; little ones are always welcome!

Thursday “Exercise Your Thalamencephalon”: Puns, puzzles, plays on words all geared to challenge your mind and have fun. New stations are set up each Thursday. Winners drawn posted from the week before.

Friday “Free Play”: Join us at high noon for Lunch Bunch at the Reading Tree (bring your own meal - we supply a snack and beverage). Then at 1:00, everyone is welcome to play BINGO where the stakes are low and the prizes are unusual.

Picnic and Pool Party at Elroy Pool on Thursday, June 30th from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Free Movie and popcorn at Elroy Theatre on Thursday, July 8th
